

The Kendall Burrows Foundation

Since 2015, the Kendall Burrows Foundation has helped fund the Palliative Care Program at Johns Hopkins Children's Center.

Palliative Care Services

1,620

families received direct palliative care services

450

home visits per year to palliative care patient families

100

hours of training each week for pediatric palliative care fellows and providers

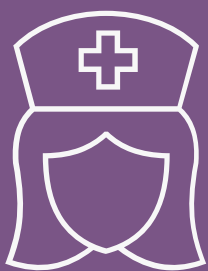

750+

Sympathy Cards for bereaved families

3,000+

support phone calls to check in with bereaved families

$460,000

salary support for two pediatric palliative care providers

Family Support

180

families attended a monthly bereavement group

350

sibling support meetings per year, facilitating memory making and bonding for patients

700

free books given to grieving families

5,750

patient visits each year

To help, donate now:

More information at www.kendallburrowsfoundation.org

